In our ongoing effort to evaluate and improve the Compliance Institute, we would like to ask that you take a moment to complete the evaluation below. While your responses on the individual session evaluations are very important to the individual faculty members, the Association relies on your overall comments to steer the future direction of the program.

Please indicate your response to the following questions by marking the appropriate box on the right. Please feel free to share any comments in the space below each item. Return completed evaluations to the registration staff or drop off in the evaluation boxes located throughout the conference area.
